Here we are! Now what?

Whether you're looking at spending a few days at a marina or a few months in the shipyard, San Diego is one of the best places on the planet for crew to spend some time. So, tie'er up! Lock her down... it's time to step off the boat!

San Diego is a large county with many world-class attractions, but you will find many of them very spread out, so a rental car is the first thing that you will need... The next few pages offer some great information and advice to help you enjoy any time off you get.

If you're feeling active, take your pick from sandy beaches, great surf, hiking, biking, golf, race cars, amusement parks or just sit back and watch some pro sports. If you feel like taking it a bit easier there's plenty of restaurants, shopping, galleries and museums. And, if you're looking to light up your night there's theatre, dance clubs and live music to suit whatever style you're into.

This is truly a great place to be. All you really need is a good friend who can help you find whatever it is you're looking for. That's who we are.

GREAT FOOD & DRINKS

DOWNTOWN

The downtown area is rich with a variety of restaurants to meet any palette and budget. Whether going to a Padre game, Horton Plaza Shopping Mall, or out for a night at any of the exciting clubs that the Gaslamp District has to offer, be sure to bring an appetite and try the menu at one of these tasty eateries.

Bondi Bar & Kitchen

333 Fifth Avenue (between J and K Streets), Gaslamp, 619-342-0212

Australian gastro-pub offering numerous Aussie brews — with urban Australian cuisine for ballast — The food resembles California Fusion cuisine but is often spicier, made with home-country ingredients including grass-fed beef,

South Pacific fish species, and herbs you've never heard of. There's great grazing on appetizers, including outstanding Pacific oysters on the halfshell, beef pies, tempura prawns, seafood pot stickers, and the fun of exploring cheeses from Oz. Three meals, seven days until 11 p.m., midnight on weekends. Mainly moderate, some entrées expensive.

Cafe Chloe

721 Ninth Avenue (at G Street), East Village, 619-232-3242

In a bright and beautiful setting with small tables, barseating, and a patio, you'll find light and lovely Parisian-style bistro fare with substantial breakfasts, svelte lunches and dinners, and sophisticated bar-nibbles. Nightly specials keep the menu interesting, and desserts are worth every calorie. No reservations except large groups. Moderate pricing.

Chopahn Authentic Afghan Cuisine

750 Sixth Avenue (near F Street), Gaslamp, 619-236-9236

Authentic Afghan cuisine resembles Indian and Persian food but is singularly itself: the spicing is exotic but the flavors are clear and unmuddled. It emphasizes grilled-to-order marinated meats (especially lamb), stews, and wellseasoned rice dishes, and uniquely delicious appetizers. Dinner nightly. Moderate.

UPTOWN & OLD TOWN

Uptown refers to the area just to the north-west of Balboa Park. Lots of great places to eat & shop. Old Town is located at the south east corner where the I-5 intersects the I-8, just a few miles north of Downtown.

Sushi Deli

228 W. Washington st. San Diego, 92103
619-233-3072

Hillcrest. This bustling little restaurant isn't the place to go for dramatic presentation, but the fish is super fresh and 4 people can eat until full and drink until... done, for under $100. It's great!

El Agave

2304 San Diego Avenue (at Old Town Avenue), Old Town
619-220-0692

Reservations recommended. You'll find upscale, unusual Mexican specialties in an intimate Spanish-style dining room or on a small heated balcony. The menu celebrates three great pre-Hispanic cuisines — Aztec, Mayan, Nahuatl - with discrete admixtures of France, Spain, and Italy. The bar stocks at least 1700 tequilas and makes a food-friendly on-the-rocks margarita with fresh fruit juices. Open daily, lunch and dinner. Moderate.

Hong Kong Restaurant

3871 Fourth Avenue (at University), Hillcrest
619-291-9449

Where to get a good Chinese meal after midnight? This restaurant (next to Column One's statues and fountain shop) serves meals till 2:30 a.m. Inside is typical Asian decor, including black-and-white Chinese brush paintings and carved cherry wood chairs. Their huge menu offers traditional Szechwan and Mandarin fare. Service is super quick. Lunch and dinner, seven days. Inexpensive.

Ichiban

1449 University Avenue (at Normal), Hillcrest
619-299-7203

Is this Paris or Tokyo? At night, the café outside glows like a Van Gogh painting, except the customers are eating sushi and drinking green tea. Open to 9:30 p.m., Sunday until 9 p.m. Inexpensive.

AROUND TOWN

It's difficult to focus on just a few restaurants or a few areas in a place with as much to offer as San Diego. The next few places on the entertainment menu offer a small sampling from various areas.

Bali Thai Café

407 South Camino del Rio South (dead end, west of Auto Circle and Mission Center Road), San Diego, 619-297-0800

Expect the unexpected! This tiny, unique restaurant splits its menu between three nations with chefs from Indonesia and Thailand and a chef-owner from Suriname, a former Dutch colony (like Indonesia) in South America. Short but smart wine list, beer, sake. Easy evening parking. Heated, roofed patio. Large portions. Reserve for weeknights, no reservations accepted for weekends. Lunch and dinner daily. Low moderate.

Dave & Busters

2931 Camino Del Rio N. San Diego, CA 92108 (located under the bridge where the 805 crosses over the 8)
619-280-7115

Decent food, a full bar and all the latest greatest games both arcade and carnival style. This place will make the most proper old Captain laugh and play like a kid again. Great crew night out. Moderate

Azul La Jolla

1250 Prospect Street, La Jolla
858-454-9616

The unobstructed ocean view and opulent interior are glamorous. Cuisine is Mediterranean with California influence. Menus change daily. When available, try pan-seared scallops and the outstanding asparagus soup, not duplicated anywhere. Fresh fish and seafood. Moderate to expensive.

The Australian Pub

1014 Grand Avenue, Pacific Beach
858-273-9921

This relaxing pub, owned by a true-blue Aussie, offers heaps of good Aussie food. Lunch and dinner weekdays, three meals weekends. Inexpensive.
